Kabil Port Expansion

As one of 3 designated Free Trade Zone Ports in Batam, Citranusa Kabil Port is located at Kabil Integrated Industrial Estate (KIIE), a 500 hectare industrial estate at the eastern seaboard of Batam island, Indonesia.

The Citranusa Kabil Port is capable of both domestic and international berthing, loading and discharging break cargo, container storage. The port also offers ship lay up services. As a free trade zone port, Citranusa Kabil Port also offers a one stop service for customs, immigrations, quarantine and port logistics services such as trucking/cranes to ensure smooth documentation and material clearances. Bredero Shaw is an anchor customer of KIIE and enjoys priority usage of all three deepwater berths at Citranusa Kabil Port.

PT Bredero Shaw Indonesia is strategically located less than 500 meters from the first deep water berth (Berth 3) and two new deep water berths (Berths 5 and 6).

The two new deep water berths, which began operating June 2010, are 206 meters in length with a depth of 12.5 meters and a mooring dolphin. The port is equipped with navigation lights and buoys as international marine transportation requirements. These two new berths are designed to receive large vessel up to 40,000 DWT.

The Crude Palm Oil port, located 9 km from the KIEE offers additional deepwater berthing.
